PRINTED BY FIELD & HALL, GREENFIELD. TO THE POCOMTUCK VALLEY MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION:

By a vote passed at the last Annual Meeting, your Curator was authorized to Prepare and Print a Catalogue of the Collection in Memorial Hall, and to employ all needful aid.

In the execution of this work, something More than a mere Directory to the Visitors, has been Attempted. The Descriptive and Historical notes have been made with reference to a wider circulation. It is also thought that Public Acknowledgment is due to those whose Contributions of Articles to our Collection have made our Scheme a Success.

In securing the efficient services of LUTHER J. B. LINCOLN as an Assistant, the Curator was fortunate, for, as it Fell Out, by reason of Sickness, he was able to do but little more than give Direction to the Work.

That MR. LINCOLN came Equipped with the Essential Qualifications for the perplexing Task is shown by the Work of his Hand, in the volume herewith Submitted for your Acceptance.

GEO. SHELDON, Curator.

POCOMTUCK VALLEY MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

April 18, 1870, this Association was incorporated by the Mass. Legislature, and * "George Sheldon, Robert Crawford, Nathaniel Hitchcock, Luke Wright and Samuel F. Wells, their associates and successors, were made a corporation, for the purpose of collecting and preserving such memorials, books, records, papers and curiosities, as may tend to illustrate and perpetuate the history of the early settlers of this region, and of the race which vanished before them."

In the touching language of the President in giving notice to the public of the passage of this act, "a plan entertained for many years and considered almost hopeless of execution," now became a settled and active purpose, chartered by the State, and worthy of public confidence.

How well the spirit and the letter of the charter have been carried out, this extensive and interesting collection of antiquities, best tells. During its few years of corporate existence, the Association has held, in addition to its regular annual meetings, Field Meetings at Charlemont, Northfield, Sunderland, Leverett, Bloody Brook, Turners Falls and Greenfield.

It has erected mural tablets to the memory of the sufferers of Feb. 29, 1704, and has placed an indestructible monument over the spot where Eunice Williams sank under the savage blow. It has created a dignified and sympathetic public sentiment; formed a nucleus for the constantly growing antiquarian spirit of the Valley; and established itself firmly in the hearts of the people.

Will not some one of the many who visit this Memorial Hall, complete the work so thoroughly begun, and, by donating a suitable fund to the Association, place it upon the firm financial basis which it richly deserves?

*Trustees of the Old Indian House Door.

Memorial Hall.

This solid and well preserved building was erected in 1797-8, by the Corporation of Deerfield Academy, chartered by the Legislature by an Act approved by Gov. Samuel Adams, March 21, 1797.

It was formally opened and dedicated Jan. 1st, 1799, Rev. Joseph Lyman of Hadley preaching the sermon, and Rev. Roger Newton of Greenfield delivering the keys and charge of the institution to Mr. Enos Bronson, the first preceptor.

The academy was conducted with success for three-quarters of a century, spreading its influence far and wide, and numbering among its preceptors many men of learning and talent.

In 1875 it was merged, with the munificent legacy of Mrs. Esther Dickinson, into the Deerfield Academy and Dickinson High School.

In 1878 this building was secured by the Pocomtuck VAL-LEY MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION, and after some repairs, in which the unity of the old building was preserved with care, it was re-dedicated as Memorial Hall, September 8, 1880. The most interesting exercises being conducted by Hon. George Sheldon, assisted by Rev. P. V. Finch, remarks and addresses being made by eminent men, including Charles Dudley Warner, Hon. George William Curtis, Charles Eliot Norton, Hon. Robert R. Bishop and others.

It is peculiarly fitting that this old structure, whose halls have been the alma mater of so many of past and present generations, should finally shelter these hallowed memorials of our forefathers; for it is, in itself, a monument of their farseeing and conscientious regard for the education of posterity.

Long may it stand as a beacon of historic light for generations yet to come !

LUTHER J. B. LINCOLN.

In arranging these articles it was found expedient to identify them with the rooms in which they are deposited, using an initial letter before the number attached to the article, thus:

N

No.	50, an article	in the	Kitchen, -	is labelled	K50.
66	66	66	Vestibule, -	66	V50.
66	66	65	Indian Room,	66	I50.
66	cc	"	Memorial Room.	"	MR50.
66	66	66	Domestic Room,	66	DR50.
66	66	"	Main Hall, -	66	H50.
46	66	"	Library, -	_ 66	L50.

Again, in the Indian' Room and the Main Hall, numerous articles are in cases designated by letters, therefore in those rooms, No. 50 in case A, is marked A50, &c., &c.

Articles marked * are from the Deerfield Academy Museum, established in June, 1797, and came with the building.

The utmost pains have been taken to give the correct names and residences of donors, but if mistakes have been made it is hoped they will be excused, in view of the magnitude of the collection, and the fact of its having been more than fifteen years in existence, as well as the fading quality of modern ink.

Where no residence is given with donor's name Deerfield is understood.

NOTE TO VISITORS.

In viewing the collection of the P. V. M. A. the fact should be borne in mind that it is not a scientific exhibition, nor an ordinary museum, but the direct memorial of the inhabitants both Indian and Puritan of this valley. No fixed system of carefully graded classification is practicable, nor is it desirable. Many articles may seem trivial in themselves, but as a part of the whole broad scheme of the projectors the most humble belong here as much as the most valuable. All have been the free donation of the people themselves, and it is a tribute to them, as well as to the guardian spirit of the Association. The simple descriptive lines refer to persons who have lived and died, mostly in private life, in this vicinity, and they should be inspected reverently, and not in a spirit of criticism. The P. V. M. Association is essentially "of the people, by the people, and for the people."

THE KITCHEN.

In the arrangement of articles in this room, the intention has been, to group together, in an easily accessible manner, the contents of an old time kitchen. It should be remembered, in this connection, that in "ye olden time" the kitchen was the home room for the entire family. Here was the social centre as well as the cooking and eating room. It consequently contained a great variety of articles which to-day might seem out of place.

Any one interested in learning more of this old fashioned family life is referred to Mr. Sheldon's monograph "Forty Years of Frontier life," in the Library, (vide Deerfield History, Alcove I, Shelf 5, Case 6.)

THE INDIAN ROOM,

As its name implies, contains the exclusively Indian relics, warlike and peaceful, ancient and modern.

The venerable, tangible door, which was saved from the Old Indian House, and such other reminders of the great confiagration and the assault in 1704, as have been preserved, form mute but eloquent mementoes of that direful night.

The attention of those interested in aboriginal history is especially called to the extensive and interesting collection of stone implements, weapons, ornaments, etc., of the most varied character, representing nearly all phases of Indian life, and embracing already more than five thousand specimens.

In addition to the specimens numbered and catalogued there are a large number, contributed by many people, which it has been impracticable to identify.

- Ι. Door of Old Indian House.... Trustees of the Door. Built during the closing years of the 17th Century, by Ensign John Sheldon. This house went through the conflagration in 1704. It was taken down in 1849, and after some years the door was purchased by D. D. Slade, M. D., of Chestnut Hill, Boston. At the request of the citizens of Deerfield he relinquished it, and the celebration of its return was held here, March 2, 1868. It was placed under control of Trustees, and in its case (No. 150), stood in the hall of the Pocomtuck Hotel here, was saved at the burning of that building, and finally deposited in Memorial Hall. The hole, chopped through by the Indians in their assault, still shows the jagged cuts, and bruises, now as then. Horse-shoe ......Mrs. C. W. Hoyt. 2. Once hung as a talisman over the inner casing of the front door of the Old Indian House, when it was built, 1600-1700. Door Posts ...... Same. 3. From the Old Indian House. Extract from a Poem by J. D. Canning at the celebration of 4. the return of the door, Mar. 2, 1868. ....S. R. Phillips, Springfield. 5. Sioux Indians. Procured of them and brought home by the donor. Picture of the Old Indian House......Mrs. C. W. Hoyt. 51/2. 6. Which supported an upper projecting story.

Case J.

The use of these stones has not yet been discovered Their usual characteristics are one or more "pits," or depressions on each side, although some have them only on one side, and others have two, three and four on each side. They vary greatly in size and shape, and run from small pebbles of two inches in diameter to large stones 16 inches in diameter, and four feet in circumference, weighing 60 lbs. They are not found in all localities where Indians lived, like other relics, but have nearly all come from within two miles of Memorial Hall. They constitute an interesting problem, there being nearly 300 specimens.

THE LIBRARY.

The great expense attending the publication of a Catalogue of the Books and Pamphlets in the Library, approximating 10,000 Volumes already on the shelves, renders it impossible at present. The only attempt in this direction being of such manuscripts as have been permanently framed. The list of Donors to the Library, whether of Books, Pamphlets, Manuscripts, or kindred articles, is given entire.

The Library being of use as one o freference mainly, it is hoped that the Written Catalogue will prove sufficient for the present requirements of visitors.

A peculiar and destinctive feature of this Library is that these volumes carry an atmosphere of personality with them; nearly all have been read and pondered over by some one of the thinking men and women whose names are found on the fly-leaves. They represent, literally, the culture and literary life of the valley for two centuries. They were gathered, to a large degree, from the garrets and closets of old houses in this valley.

Attention is called to the Field Genealogy, (Alcove J, Shelf 5) collated with great labor by the late Rodney B. It is as yet unpublished, and it is a matter of regret that so valuable a work should be limited to one copy.
